

---

Etiquette and Understandings

Key principles of us working together to get the best from our Virtual Group Consultation today

- Be curious and listen to others in the group
- Allow us to keep things to time - with one person talking at a time this will help us all to get the best from today's session
- Respect confidentiality
- Share thoughts, relevant advice and offer support for other members of the group
- What we will do if virtual platform crashes
- Any other?